

2012 IMHCA SPRING Ethics Training Ethics of Supervision

The IMHCA ethics training for the spring will review the ethics of supervision. This three-hour workshop will explore ethical considerations for both supervisors and supervisees. The focus of this workshop will remain on ethical implication in supervision and will not be a supervision workshop. Topics to be covered include gate keeping and professional advocacy, counselor self-care and effectiveness, implications for clients (e.g. confidentiality), supervisor competence, and technology use in supervision.
